As one of Northern Ireland's premier visitor attractions, W5 offers you a contemporary setting to make your event cutting edge, unique and above all memorable.

Situated on the banks of the River Lagan, W5 is within easy reach of Belfast's transport networks and finest hotels. Whether you are planning a board meeting for 16, an exclusive reception for 50 or an awards ceremony for 250, W5 will dazzle your guests.

At W5 the planning of each event is broken down into the five Ws Who are your guests? Corporate clients, staff, family or general public...

What sort of event are you planning? Gala dinner, seminar, board meeting, breakfast meeting or team building day...

Where is the event being held? Point Boardroom, Atrium, Lecture Theatre, Temporary Exhibition Space or Seminar Rooms

When is the event taking place? Early morning, lunchtime, after hours, ...

Why will the guest attend? Curiosity, fun, entertainment, business but hopefully because you invite them...

Corporate events have become more sophisticated in recent years and W5 is a venue like no other. With its unique design and location W5 offers an eclectic mix of style and functionality for any kind of corporate event.

Whether you wish to hold a business conference, a lavish cocktail soiree, or an intimate dinner party, W5 staff are available to guide and advise you to ensure the ideal gathering at competitive prices.

Corporate Hospitality

Corporate hospitality is serious business. You need the right venue, the right entertainment, the right music, the right menus, the right wines, the right lighting... all this without even thinking about what message you want to convey to your guests.

W5's Corporate Services team can provide your company or party with a uniquely personalised theme for that special event. From "Narnia" to "Mamma Mia" W5 have themed events to suit an array of discerning clients.

Conferences

At W5, we know there are many parts to planning a successful conference. Every conference is different and at W5 our first step is to spend time getting to know you, your company and your audience, after all conferences no longer have to be boring, two dimensional affairs!

Whether you are looking for the perfect setting, need some help with planning your event or simply want inspiration, the Corporate Services team at W5 will work with you to deliver a professional and creative conference. W5 can help define your needs and provide pre-event consultative assistance as well as on-the-day support.

This will successfully communicate your key messages, leaving your guests with a lasting and positive memory of the whole conference experience.

Awards / Gala Dinners

Do you want an awards ceremony that itself deserves accolades? W5 fires the spirit of discovery and creativity of thousands of visitors every week and has the expertise, specialist skills and resources needed to host an evening without equal.

The coordination of a company or industry awards dinner requires meticulous event planning and continuous attention to detail. Working closely with event management companies W5 can deliver some of the most exciting and intricate special events.

W5 offers a choice of the Atrium, which has space to seat up to 180 guests or the Temporary Exhibition Space which has a capacity of 250.

Team Building

Team building is an area of growing interest to many of W5's corporate clients with many companies wanting to improve communication, develop understanding, emphasise listening skills, create bonds and highlight the needs of the team and the individual. W5 can coordinate Team building activities that are designed to cater for a wide range of needs.

W5's strength lies in being able to combine more traditional forms of organisational development with dynamic experiential learning sessions using our award-winning creative and interactive products. Themes including forensics and animation ensure a glorious combination of learning with fun.

In order to bring interactivity back into education even within the corporate arena W5 can offer Qwizdom an interactive remote response system that lets you communicate with your audience and them with you! This allows corporate events at W5 to engage the audience, be creative and see results.

Seminars

W5 has a choice of fully flexible and equipped seminar and meeting rooms and our stunning Point Boardroom has floor to ceiling glass walls offering breathtaking views of Belfast. Flexibility and professionalism are paramount so every event is afforded the same importance. Our aim is to make your event run smoothly: No request is too much trouble for our corporate team.

Catering

Every client, every location and every event has a completely unique set of criteria and it is our job to exceed customer expectations and deliver the food and service appropriate to the occasion. At W5 our caterers strive to make your event unforgettable – until the next one.

Using flavours rich in style, spirit and originality our food tastes divine, looks beautiful, smells tempting and will leave your guests feeling pampered. You can pick and choose from our extensive menus or leave us to do the selecting – we are always happy to help you make informed decisions.
